

Librería
Bonilla y Asociados
desde 1950

Título: International Relations

Autor: Goldstein, Joshua

Precio: $550.00

Editorial:

Año: 2004

Tema:

Edición: 6ª

Sinopsis

ISBN: 9780321209481

This best-selling IR text continues to provide unparalleled coverage of international political economy, traditional and alternative theoretical perspectives, technology, and recent global events.

A field-defining text, Goldstein's International Relations was the first and only survey to balance security and economic issues; the first text to include coverage of alternative theoretical perspectives, the environment, and women; and is the only book to integrate technology. The sixth edition continues to set the standard for books in this market with all new and updated discussions-including the situation in Iraq, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and world trade talks-and offers a new feature, "Let's Debate the Issue," to get students thinking critically and applying concepts to real-world cases. Lauded for its commitment to currency, lively writing style, and abundance of examples, International Relations has long been a favorite of both students and instructors because it makes the rich complexity of international politics accessible and exciting.