

Librería
Bonilla y Asociados
desde 1950

Título: International Entrepreneurship Education

Autor: Fayolle Alain/ Klandt Heinz

Precio: $1950.00

Editorial:

Año: 2006

Tema:

Edición: 1ª

Sinopsis

ISBN: 9781845421793

- Issues and newness in the field of entrepreneurship education : new lenses for new practical and academic questions 1
- 2 Learning and teaching entrepreneurship : dilemmas, reflections and strategies 21
- 3 Entrepreneurship education : can business schools meet the challenge? 35
- 4 To support the emergence of academic entrepreneurs : the role of business plan competitions 55
- 5 Attitudes, intentions and behaviour : new approaches to evaluating entrepreneurship education 74
- 6 The continental and Anglo-American approaches to entrepreneurship education - differences and bridges 93
- 7 Mentoring for entrepreneurs as an education intervention 112
- 8 Can you teach entrepreneurs to write their business plan? : an empirical evaluation of business plan competitions 133
- 9 Skills demonstrations : a possibility for meaningful co-operation with work-life in internationalizing vocational education 155
- 10 Pathways to new business opportunities : innovations and strategies for the entrepreneurial classroom 168
- 11 Developing an entrepreneurial spirit among engineering college students : what are the educational factors? 191
- 12 Undergraduate students as a source of potential entrepreneurs : a comparative study between Italy and Argentina 218
- 13 Entrepreneurship education among students at a Canadian university : an extensive empirical study of students' entrepreneurial preferences and intentions 241
- 14 Motivations and drawbacks concerning entrepreneurial action : a study of French PhD students 263
- 15 Entrepreneurship education for the African informal sector 277