

Librería
Bonilla y Asociados
desde 1950

Título: The Not So Big House

Autor: Susanka Sarah

Precio: $512.00

Editorial:

Año: 2008

Tema:

Edición: 1<sup>a</sup>

Sinopsis

ISBN: 9781600850479

Architect Susanka believes that the large homes being built today place too much emphasis on square footage rather than on current lifestyles. Here she shows how homes can be designed to feature "adaptable spaces open to one another, designed for everyday use." She describes how to examine occupants' lifestyles, how to incorporate the kitchen as the focal point of the home, how to give the illusion of space, and how, with storage, lighting, and furniture arrangement, a smaller home can be comfortably livable. Photographs of contemporary homes as well as those by Frank Lloyd Wright and other modern architects illustrate Susanka's ideas and show the timelessness of the style she advocates. This thought-provoking book will be a good addition to architectural and interior design collections.