

Librería
Bonilla y Asociados
desde 1950

Título: Eats, Shoots & Leaves. Why, Commas Really Do Make a Difference!

Autor: Truss, Lynne

Precio: $86.00

Editorial:

Año: 2007

Tema:

Edición: 1ª

Sinopsis

ISBN: 9780545042222

Of all the punctuation marks, the comma is the most used and misused traffic signal of language. They can wreak havoc when left out or plunked in the wrong place. Clever illustrations hysterically demonstrate the disastrous results and misunderstandings from faulty comma placement. Begs for students to create their own comma conundrums!